NOTICE

5. On April 25, 2014, Petitioner received a Collection Action Assessment and Notice of Intent for a personal liability penalty (a.k.a. NPL) (“Notice”) in the amount of $775,851.58, which covers the tax periods ending March 31, 2012 and which is comprised of $525,056.00 in tax due, $211,122.00 in penalties, $39,681.23 in interest, and $7.65 in payments/credits. The Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

JURISDICTION

6. Petitioner brings this action pursuant to the Illinois Independent Tax Tribunal Act (“Tribunal Act”), 35 ILCS 1010/1-1 to 35 ILCS 1010/1-100.

7. This Tribunal has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Section 1-45 and 1-50 of the Tribunal Act because Petitioner timely filed this Petition within 60 days of the Notice.

BACKGROUND

8. Petitioner was a corporate officer of Ahmed Inc., which is now closed/defunct.

9. Petitioner was not involved in the filing, preparation, and payment of Illinois sales tax for Ahmed Inc. during the tax periods at issue because he had nothing to do with the day-to-day operations of the business and the corporation also retained and reasonably relied on an outside accountant to prepare the sales tax returns.

10. The amounts contained on the Notice as based on a sales tax audit of the underlying corporation, Ahmed Inc., that occurred after the business was closed and defunct and that was estimated by the Department which did not review any of the corporation’s books and records.

COUNT I

Petitioner is not a responsible officer who failed to pay the sales tax penalties and interest of Ahmed Inc.

11. Petitioner realleges and incorporates by reference the allegation made in paragraphs 1 through 10, inclusive, hereinabove.

12. A corporate officer who does not have control or supervision for filing or paying sales tax is not personally liable for the corporation's debt. 35 ILCS 35 ILCS 735/3-7.

13. Petitioner was a corporate officer of Ahmed Inc. who did not have control, supervision, or responsibility for filing sales tax returns or making sales tax payments and therefore is not personally liable for the corporation's unpaid sales tax, penalties, and interest because he had nothing to do with the day-to-day operations of the business and also because the corporation retained on an outside accountant to prepare the sales tax returns.

14. Contrary to the Department's determination, Petitioner is not a responsible officer who failed to pay the sales tax of the corporation.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the Tribunal enter an order that:

- (a) finds and declares that Petitioner is not personally liable for the unpaid sales tax, penalties, and interest of the corporation because Petitioner did not have control, supervision, or responsibility for filing sales tax returns or making sales tax payments; and
- (b) enjoins the Department from taking any action to assess, lien, levy, offset, or any other way prosecute and collect the amount due on the Notice; and
- (c) enters judgment in favor of Petitioner and cancels the Notice.

COUNT II

Petitioner did not willfully fail to pay the sales tax penalties and interest of Ahmed Inc.

15. Petitioner realleges and incorporates by reference the allegation made in paragraphs 1 through 14, inclusive, hereinabove.

16. A corporate officer who does not willfully fail to pay the corporation's sales tax is not personally liable for the corporation's unpaid sales tax penalties and interest. 35 ILCS 35 ILCS 735/3-7.

17. Petitioner was a corporate officer of Ahmed Inc. who did not willfully fail to pay the sales tax, penalties, and interest and therefore is not personally liable for such amounts because he had nothing to do with the day-to-day operations of the business and also because the Department's audit occurred after the business was closed and defunct.

18. Contrary to the Department's determination, Petitioner is not a responsible officer who willfully failed to pay the sales tax, penalties, and interest of the corporation.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the Tribunal enter an order that:

- (a) finds and declares that Petitioner is not personally liable for the unpaid sales tax penalties and interest of the corporation because Petitioner did not willfully fail to pay such amounts;
- (b) enjoins the Department from taking any action to assess, lien, levy, offset, or any other way prosecute and collect the amount due on the Notice;
- (c) enters judgment in favor of Petitioner and against the Defendants and cancels the Notice; and
- (d) grants such further relief as the Tribunal deems appropriate.

COUNT III

The Department's estimated liability for the corporate sales tax audit with tax periods ending March 31, 2012 is erroneous.

19. Petitioner realleges and incorporates by reference the allegation made in paragraphs 1 through 18, inclusive, hereinabove.

20. The Notice includes an estimated audit liability for the tax periods ending March 31, 2012, which is erroneous because the underlying corporation had very few walk-in customers due to the small mini-mart.

21. Contrary to the Department's determination, Petitioner is not a responsible officer who willfully failed to pay the estimated sales tax, penalties, and interest of the corporation.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the Tribunal enter an order that:

- (a) finds and declares that Petitioner is not personally liable for the estimated sales tax, penalties, and interest of the corporation for the tax periods ending March 31, 2012;
- (b) enjoins the Department from taking any action to assess, lien, levy, offset, or any other way prosecute and collect the amount due on the Notice;
- (c) enters judgment in favor of Petitioner and against the Defendants and cancels the Notice; and
- (d) grants such further relief as the Tribunal deems appropriate.

COUNT IV

The Department cannot assess a personal liability assessment for penalties and interest amounts related to unpaid corporate sales taxes.

22. Petitioner realleges and incorporates by reference the allegation made in paragraphs 1 through 21, inclusive, hereinabove.

23. The Illinois statute regarding personal liability assessments improperly defines unpaid corporate sales tax to include penalties and interest. 35 ILCS 735/3-7.

24. The intent of Illinois statute regarding personal liability assessments for unpaid corporate sales taxes is to allow the state to pursue responsible, willful corporate officers for unpaid corporate sales taxes that were collected “in trust” for the state.

25. The unpaid corporate sales tax penalties and interest contained in the Notice at issue were not collected “in trust” for the state.

26. The Department’s determination that Petitioner personally owes the unpaid penalties and interest of Ahmed Inc. is not supported by law.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the Tribunal enter an order that:

- (a) finds and declares that Petitioner is not personally liable for the unpaid sales tax penalties and interest of the corporation because such amounts were not collected “in trust” for the state;
- (b) enjoins the Department from taking any action to assess, lien, levy, offset, or any other way prosecute and collect the amount due on the Notice;
- (c) enters judgment in favor of Petitioner and against the Defendants and cancels the Notice; and
- (d) grants such further relief as the Tribunal deems appropriate.

We have determined you are personally liable for a penalty of $775,851.58.

The penalty is equal to the amount of unpaid liability of AHMED INC , due to your status as a responsible officer, partner, or individual of AHMED INC .

Illinois law (35 ILCS 735/3-7) provides that any person who has control, supervision, or responsibility of filing returns or making payments for a taxpayer, and who willfully fails to do so, shall be personally liable for a penalty equal to the amount of tax due including penalty and interest.

Pay us $775,851.58. Your payment must be guaranteed (i.e., cashier's check, money order) and made payable to the Illinois Department of Revenue. Send or bring it to us at the address below.

A protest of this notice does not preserve your rights under any other notice.
- Instead of filing a petition with the Illinois Independent Tax Tribunal or a protest with us, the Illinois Department of Revenue, you may instead, under Sections 2a and 2a.1 of the State Officers and Employees Money Disposition Act (30 ILCS 230/2a, 230/ 2a.1), pay the total liability under protest using Form RR-374, Notice of Payment Under Protest (available on our website at tax.illinois.gov), and file a complaint with the circuit court for a review of our determination.
