JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF THE PROPOSED FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER AND THE FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

NOW COMES the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois (the “Respondent”), through its attorney, Lisa Madigan, Attorney General of and for the State of Illinois, and Zanzibar LLC (the “Petitioner”), through its attorneys, Gignilliat & Hymen P.C., and respectfully move this Tribunal for an extension of the due date of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order, and of the date of the Final Pretrial Conference. In support thereof the Respondent and the Petitioner (the “Parties”) state as follows:

1. Pursuant to the last Order entered in this case, the Parties have until May 9, 2016 to prepare and submit a proposed final pretrial order, and the final pretrial conference is set for May 19.
2. On April 29, the Respondent’s counsel contacted the Petitioner’s counsel to determine when the latter would provide a first draft of the proposed order.
3. The following week, the parties’ counsel conferred and resolved to continue settlement negotiations, which may allow this matter to be settled without the necessity of a hearing.
4. In that vein, the Petitioner’s counsel made a new settlement offer on May 5, and the Respondent’s counsel promptly provided such to the Respondent’s Audit Bureau for review.
5. In light of this, counsel for the Parties conferred and both agreed to bring this motion to extend the due date of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order, and to extend the date of the Final Pretrial Conference.
6. This request is made for good cause and in good faith, and will not prejudice either party.

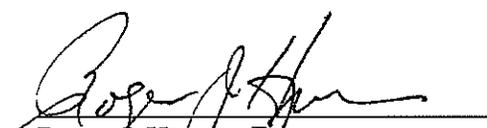

WHEREFORE, the Parties respectfully move this Tribunal for an extension of the due date of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order, to June 23, 2016, an extension of the Final Pretrial Conference, to the week of July 4, 2016, and for any other relief that is just.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa Madigan, Attorney General
State of Illinois
