ORDER

The Department has filed a Motion to Extend Discovery dated March 1, 2016, three days before written discovery is to be issued by the parties. The Department's main contention as to why it needs more time is that it waiting for some promised documents from the Petitioner that have not been forthcoming.

The Petition in this matter was filed on July 13, 2015, some seven months ago. Since that time, the court has entered orders allowing informal discovery to take place between the parties and extending time for written discovery to issue after the parties agreed on a protective order to cover confidential information produced in this litigation.

A very brief extension of time, until March 11, 2016, will be given to both parties to issue written discovery.
