PETITIONERS' MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY TO THE DEPARTMENT'S OBJECTION TO PETITIONERS' MOTION FOR STAY

The Petitioners, John E. Rogers and Frances L. Rogers, husband and wife, hereby MOVE for leave to file a reply to The Department's response to petitioners' Motion For Stay out of time on or before December 31, 2014.

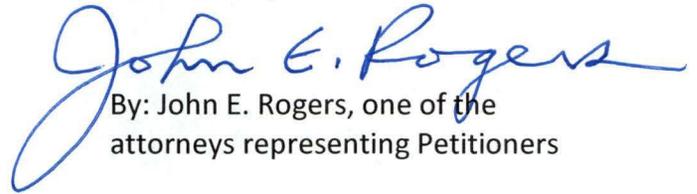

IN SUPPORT THEREOF, petitioners state as follows:

1. By Order dated September 30 the Tribunal ordered petitioners to file said reply by December 15, 2014.
2. Petitioners confused the December 15, 2014, date with the January 6, 2015, date in a subsequent order of The Tribunal dated December 9, 2014.
3. This case is counsel's first case with The Tribunal and its independent requirements for timing and notifications which counsel is striving to master.
4. This error is solely due to counsel's administrative error and confusion.

5. Counsel has spoken to Jennifer Kieffer, SAAG, who stated that the Department reserves the right to determine whether to oppose this motion once it is filed so counsel cannot say whether the Department opposes this Motion or not.

WHEREFORE, it is prayed that this Motion be granted.
