5. Due to the complicated nature of the circumstances and incomplete information possessed by the Petitioner, Petitioner currently lacks sufficient factual knowledge necessary to file an accurate jurisdictional memorandum with the Tribunal.
6. Petitioner is working diligently with the Department to obtain the necessary information to file Petitioner's jurisdictional memorandum. The Petitioner's request for additional information is pending with the Department.
7. By granting this extension, neither party will be prejudiced.
8. The Department's representative is amenable to this extension; this Motion is unopposed.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that an order be entered (1) granting it leave to file its jurisdictional memorandum on or before January 2, 2015, i.e., thirty days after the current due date; or (2) for such relief as this Tribunal deems just and proper.

Dated: November 26, 2014
