MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

NOW COMES Jason S. Bartell of Bartell Powell LLP, a limited liability partnership, and hereby moves for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel for the Petitioner, PAMELA HALVERSON, and in support thereof states as follows:

- 1) Your movant has appeared as attorney of record for the Petitioner herein.
- 2) Irreconcilable differences appear to have arisen between the Petitioner and the movant, so that it would be in the interest of all for movant to withdraw as counsel.
- 3) At this point, Jason S. Bartell can no longer adequately represent the Petitioner.
- 4) Pursuant to Rule 13 of the Illinois Supreme Court Rules, Jason S. Bartell has sent the letter attached hereto as Exhibit A by both certified and regular mail via the U.S. Postal Service, along with a copy of this Motion on August 28, 2015.
- 5) The last known address of the Petitioner is: Pamela Halverson, N873 Club Circle Drive, Pr Du Sac, WI 53578.
- 6) Petitioner is advised and notified that within 21 days after the entry of the order of withdrawal, the Petitioner or new counsel should file their supplemental appearance stating therein an address at which service of notice or other papers may be had.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned prays for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel for the Petitioner, PAMELA HALVERSON, effective immediately upon entering an Order for Withdrawal.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. S. Bartell", written over a horizontal line.

RE: Pamela Halverson v. Illinois Department of Revenue
Case No.: 2014-TT-255

Dear Ms. Halverson:

This is to inform you that in light of your failure to cooperate with me in your case and pay legal bills in a timely manner, I will be requesting the tribunal's permission to withdraw from the above-referenced matter. A copy of the Motion to Withdraw is enclosed.

Please be advised that to insure notice of any future action taken in your case, you should retain other counsel or file your supplementary appearance with the tax tribunal within 21 days after entry of the order allowing me to withdraw. Your supplementary appearance should state an address at which notices and other papers may be served upon you.

Very Truly Yours,

Jason S. Bartell
